

NIH Office of Disease Prevention Art Challenge: How Prevention Can Create Better Health for Everyone Entry Form

The Office of Disease Prevention (ODP) within the Office of the Director at the National Institutes of Health (NIH) is holding the How Prevention Can Create Better Health for Everyone art challenge. The goal of this nationwide contest is to encourage teens and young adults ages 13–22 to share their ideas—through original art—about how prevention can help achieve health equity by improving the health of people in the United States, no matter who they are or where they live.

Please complete the entry form below. All forms and artwork must be submitted no later than 11:59 p.m. ET on January 31, 2024.

To complete this form, save it on your computer, open it directly in Acrobat or Acrobat Reader, or print a hard copy.

Important Points

- Artwork and a completed and signed entry form must be emailed to ODP-YouthArtChallenge@nih.gov between October 16, 2023 and January 31, 2024 at 11:59 p.m. ET.
 - Email subject line: “ODP Art Challenge: [Title of Artwork – a shortened version is acceptable], [Age Category: Teen or Young Adult] – [FirstInitial LastName].”
 - Example: ODP Art Challenge: Picturing Better Health for All, Teen Category – WAddams
 - Save this entry form using the file name: “[Title of Artwork – a shortened version is acceptable]_[FirstInitialLastName]_Entry Form.” If you printed and filled it out by hand instead of completing it electronically, you can either scan or take a picture of the final signed document.
 - Example: Picturing Better Health for All_WAddams_Entry Form
- There are two age categories for artists:
 - Teen (13–17 years of age at the time of submission)
 - Young Adult (18–22 years of age at the time of submission)
- If you are submitting artwork to the Teen category (13–17 years old at the time of submission):
 - Your parent or legal guardian MUST sign and date this entry form to confirm that they understand and accept the Challenge rules and regulations.
 - If you are an emancipated youth, the requirement for parent/legal guardian consent is waived, but you MUST self-certify your emancipated status on the entry form. If your artwork is selected as a winner, you will need to submit PDF documentation of your emancipated status before the award can be made.
- Only one entry per person is allowed.
- All artwork must be original in concept, design, and execution.
- Read How To Enter and the Rules and Requirements for complete instructions. This information is also available on Challenge.gov.
